

Kensington | GLASS ARTS | Incorporated

Project Accountant

The Project Accountant is responsible for assisting the project teams in the financial managements of contract projects by monitoring the progress of projects, investigating variances, approving expenses and ensuring the project billings are issued to customers and payments are collected. The Project Accountant will also be expected to assist the Accounting Manager with identifying and establishing new financial controls, reports, and measurement systems to provide better accountability throughout the project cycle.